THE LATE CAPT. THOS. PERRY.

The following resolutions of respect to Past Commander Thos. Perry, R. E.
Lee Camp No. 2, Confederate Veterans, of Alexandria, written by Col. Arthur Herbert, were adopted at a recent meeting of that camp:

In memorial of Capt. Thomas Perry who departed this life December 20, 1907, in the Christian faith and in good hope of a blessed immortality. We all know his life as a citizen as he went in and out among us meeting his obligations as such and that in his private life among his friends and the closer ties of his home life it was all that could be expected from a man actuated always by a strong sense of duty.

But it is to his life as a soldier that we must turn, for its dominating characteristics. He was among the first organizers of the old Alexandria Riflemen, never missing a meeting or drill, following that organization with equal devotion and enthusiasm through all its changes, though many peaceful and military pageants to the John Brown incident, and then through the trying years from '61 to '65 to the close at Appomattox.
His character as a man and soldier impressed all with whom he came in contact. Intensely loyal to the cause of the South, modest and unassuming he performed all his duty cheerfully, whether that duty were the ordinary routine of camp, the danger of outpost, the advance of a skirmish line, or the maddening charge of a line of battle he was found where duty called. Captured at a fight with Merritt's cavalry at Manassas Gap he suffered much from the hardship of the prison life and when discharged, though suffering greatly from ill health, he at once returned to his regimental camp and comrades, the only home he knew in those days of danger and hardship. He sold now from earth's sorrows and changes he has entered his rest and peace eternal.

FIGHTS.

A fight occurred in a saloon in the western part of the city yesterday afternoon between three white men. Officers Beach, Henderson and Nicholson later arrested the combatants, one of whom left collateral for his appearance this morning. He could not be found when the case was called in the Police Court and forfeited his deposit. The other two men were dismissed by Justice Caton, it having been shown that the missing man was the aggressor.

A fight between several colored women and a colored man took place about 6 o'clock yesterday evening on Franklin street, between Fairfax and Royal, during which unconventional language was used and bricks, rocks and plates were used as missiles. The trouble, it is said, started at the intersection of Franklin and Royal streets, between two colored girls. Older colored people became involved, and the fight did not end until the combatants reached Fairfax street.
The fight attracted considerable attention.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

J. L. and B. W. Trauer, charged with improper conduct, forfeited their collateral by failing to appear.

A white man, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Two other white men charged with a similar offense, were dismissed.

Robert Preston, colored, charged with stealing chickens, was sent to jail for six months.

Samuel Brooks, colored, charged with selling liquor without a license and on Sunday, was fined $50.

Mrs. Amelia Lucas died in Washington Thursday. Her remains will be brought to this city for interment.

Mr. John, Elin, of Virginia, has said:
"I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold. I have used them myself with fine results." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Oysters in all styles at Rammel Cafe.

Money can be saved by buying your shoes at Marshall's, 422 King street.

SELLING LIQUOR WITHOUT A LICENSE.

Brian Campbell, who was arrested in Loudoun county yesterday by Deputy Marshal J. F. Glover on a charge of selling liquor without a license, was given a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Garnett this morning. He was held to await the trial of witnesses next Monday.

Wash Barnes was also arrested for selling liquor without a license in Loudoun county. He was brought before Commissioner Garnett this morning and released upon giving $300 security for his appearance before the next grand jury of the U. S. Court.

GAVE BOND.

Harry Wimsatt, who was recently indicted by the grand jury in Washington for alleged conspiracy to defraud in connection with the car ticket swindle, yesterday surrendered himself to the authorities of that city and with his attorney appeared at the courthouse and gave bond for $5,000. Wimsatt was in New York at the time the indictments were returned, but a bench warrant was issued for his arrest. As has been stated, he is the former husband of Marie Wilson, who made fame and fortune as a Floradora sextet girl. Wimsatt was indicted jointly with Andrew L. Lucas and Charles F. Tabler, of Washington.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.] As heretofore stated a special grand jury has been summoned to appear on Monday next in the Corporation Court when the following cases will come before them viz.: Frank Parker, Walter Smith, Fred Hicks and Edward Downs, grand larceny; Walter Smith, Edward Downs and Fred Hicks, breaking and entering a slaughter house; C. H.
Channey, misdemeanor; Edw. Downs, Fred Hicks and Wilbert Cook, felonious and malicious shooting; Geo. Payne and John Lewis, breaking and entering a storehouse.

MURDER IN FAIRFAX.

On the road near Fairfax yesterday evening E. L. Poland killed Ron Maddox while the latter was attempting to enforce the payment of some money which Maddox claimed was due him. Poland struck Maddox with an iron coupling pin and he never gained consciousness.
He died in two hours. Poland was arrested and bailed in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance before the next grand jury. He claims that he was attacked and that he acted in self defense. Maddox it appears had an assault case pending against him and was to have been tried next week.

SENT TO JAIL.

Officers Nicholson and Gill yesterday arrested a colored man named Robert Preston on suspicion of stealing chickens.
Preston went on north Lee street with two fine chickens which he sold to the proprietress of a house for 35 cents apiece. He was positively identified by the woman and an inmate of the house, but he flatly denied having had any dealings with the woman. He did not tell how he came in possession of the chickens, and was sent to jail for six months.

BASKETBALL.

The Alexandria Athletic Association basketball team defeated "Battery D," at Fort Myer, last night, in a closely contested game, by a score of 38 to 37. The Alexandria team will play "Troop F," the crack team of Fort Myer, tonight at Schuler's Hall. The game will be called at 8:30 sharp. On next Saturday night March 14th, the Alexandria team will play the Govan Y. M. C. A. team of Baltimore, Md. The visitors will be entertained by a dance after the game.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

Rev. Vance Price will preach at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. tomorrow at the Washington Street M. E. Church South. This will conclude the special services which have been in progress for two weeks. The meeting has been of untold benefit to those who have been in attendance. The people will sincerely regret the departure of Mr. Price.

THE FISH WHARF.

Mr. S. H. Lunt, auctioneer, today rented at public auction for the committee on public property of the City Council, the fish wharf for $250 to Mr.
George E. Price. This is the lowest price for which the wharf has ever rented. The price last year was $300, while in years gone by $5,000 had been realized.

FINED FIFTY DOLLARS.

Samuel Brooks, colored, was arrested last night by Officers Beach and Gill charged with selling liquor without a license and on Sunday. Brooks lives at No. 218 north Payne street, and two colored men testified that they were furnished with liquor in his house and paid for the same. The accused was fined $50.

GEORGE WASHINGTON PARK.

The work of plotting and preparing the maps of the subdivisions recently purchased by the Washington Monument Association is in the hands of Civil Engineer D. J. Howell. The secretary is anxious to receive replies from the letters he has written the purchasers of lots as soon as possible.

MEETING FOR MEN.

Rev. Augustine Davidson, of Washington, will deliver the address at the men's meeting at Young People's Building tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.
His subject will be "Fences Or No Fences." Mr. M. L. Dinwiddie will sing. All men cordially invited.

CRABS.

From Rammel's Cafe there was sent to this office today a tray beautifully garlanded and filled with crabs, deviled and boiled, "cooked to a turn" and served with all the necessary condiments.
It was a lunch that would have tempted the appetite of an epicure.

STABBING AFFRAY.

A stabbing affray took place at the Potomac railroad yards north of this city yesterday afternoon, in which Frank Landon was stabbed by a man named Fletcher. Landon was attended by Dr.
Rittenour. His injury is not serious.

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. M. Hill entertained Mr. Joe Colvin and a party of friends at Brill's Opera House Cafe last night. Mr. Colvin left for New York on the 10:30 p. m. train and will take his steamer today for a European trip.

Rev. J. M. Sheridan, D. D., president of the Methodist Protestant annual conference, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Protestant Church, in this city, tomorrow night. This will be the occasion of his first annual sermon.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The weather has been fair and mild today.

Two chickens were stolen on Duke street, between Lee and Union, Thursday night.

The republicans of the Eighth district will meet in convention in this city on Monday next to elect two delegates and two alternates to the Chicago convention.

Two sailors belonging to the bark Asia, now unloading a cargo of boxes at this port, were arrested this afternoon for disorderly conduct. Each had a sheath knife on his person and one carried a pistol.

Several torpedoes which had been placed on the electric railway track on Cameron street exploded last night when a train passed over them, causing some alarm to people living nearby.

Peter Baggett, the boy who recently disappeared from his home in this city with John Gilroy, has returned. The two boys made a trip to the Blue Ridge mountains, but found conditions uncongenial.

Mrs. C. M. Pickin and Mrs. Ruth Field, who are making a delicious article of orange jelly, sent a sample jar of that jelly to this office today. It is made entirely of fruit and is all that is claimed for it.

There was another small supply of country produce in market this morning. Prices were about the same as those of last Saturday. Eggs at 20 a dozen and a dozen and butter at from 25 to 35 cents a pound.

The carpet committee of Roberts Chapel M. E. Church, south Washington street, will hold a fair for one week in their lecture room in the rear of their church, commencing Monday evening, March 9th. There will also be special services tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.
All are invited.

THE OHIO SCHOOL DISASTER.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette: In reading your editorial comment of the awful disaster at Collinwood, Ohio, in Thursday's paper, I note you call attention to "another horror that occurred at Boyertown, Pa., in a building used for the exhibition of moving pictures." You have evidently been misinformed as to the accident at Boyertown, as the fire there occurred in the Opera House and at the time a lecture was being delivered, illustrated with stereoscopic views. The press dispatches say this fire was caused by some one on the stage overturning a kerosene lamp. Your editorial does this moving picture business an injustice, and in view of this fact we wish to call the attention of the public to the absolute safety of the place I have the pleasure of being manager. We will be pleased at any time to show you or any one through the building to prove the above assertion.

Respectfully yours,
THOMAS L. RISHILL,
Manager Alexandria Amusement Co.

[The disaster at Boyertown occurred on the night of the 12th of January.
It was stated in the first dispatches that a moving picture show was being given in the Opera House at that place which at the time was being used for the exhibition of moving pictures under the auspices of a church. The dispatches published in the Gazette of the 15th of January again stated that moving pictures were being shown when, suddenly, the sharp firing of air from an ill-fitting valve of the gas tank of the machine sounded. One of the little girls behind the curtain innocently lifted the muslin screen from the bottom to peer at the audience.
As she did so the wooden bar and weight at the bottom brushed against two lamps set in a trough of tin, the reservoir for the oil. Toppling over, the lamps were disjointed, and blazing oil spread about the stage and the orchestra pit. There was no intention of doing injury to any one on the part of the writer of the editorial. He only referred to what were regarded to be facts at the time.]
